
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF EUROPOL

Catherine De Bolle
Executive Director of Europol

Catherine De Bolle is born in February 1970 in Aalst, Belgium.

Professional Activities

- May 2018 onwards: Europol Executive Director
- March 2012 - April 2018: General Commissioner of the Belgian Federal Police.
- November 2001 to February 2012: Chief of the local police of the city of Ninove.
- From 1994 to November 2001: Legal expert and officer at the Gendarmerie General Directorate of Human Resources.

References & Special Mentions

- 8 March 2018: Appointment as Europol's Executive Director, EU JHA Council
- October 2017: Officier de l' Ordre National de la Légion d'Honneur (France's highest civilian honour La Légion d'Honneur)
- From November 2015 until November 2018: Member of the Executive Committee of INTERPOL
- June 2015 to April 2018: President of the Coordination Committee for Intelligence and Security
- January 2015: Awarded Public Manager of the Year
- From 2007 to January 2012: Vice-President of the "Board of chiefs of the local police"
- 2011: Member of the "Police Reform Commission" representing the local police
- March 2012 to April 2018: Member of the Federal Police Council
- Member of international police forums:
 - Pearls in Policing, President of the international working group 'The Future of Policing'
 - March 2012 to April 2018: Member of the Standing Committee on Operational Cooperation on Internal Security of the European Union.

Languages

French/English/Dutch

Education

- › Ghent University - Law - legal expert/lawyer, 1993
- › Royal Gendarmerie Academy, School for Officers - officer with the Gendarmerie, 1994 to 1997

Marital status: Married, 3 sons

Declaration of interests Executive Director

TARGET GROUPS: General Public • Law Enforcement • Academia • Professor • Students • Researcher • Press/Journalists • Other

Source URL: <https://www.europol.europa.eu/executive-director-of-europol>