

MIGRANT SMUGGLING IN THE EU

Report

Other Reports

Europe has seen an unprecedented increase in the number of irregular migrants arriving in the European Union since 2014. The scale of these migratory flows reached previously unseen heights in 2015. This trend of exponentially increasing numbers of migrants arriving in the EU is set to continue in 2016.

EN Migrant smuggling in the EU - Report [3.62 MB]

CRIME AREAS

Trafficking in Human Beings

TARGET GROUPS

General Public • Law Enforcement • Academia • Professor • Students • Researcher •

Press/Journalists • Other

ENTITIES

European Migrant Smuggling Centre \(EMSC\)

FUNCTIONS

Management Board \(MB\) • Management Board Secretariat • Data Protection Function \(DPF\) •

Internal Audit Function \(IAF\) • Accountancy Office \(ACCO\) • Heads of Europol National Units \(HENU's\) •

Security Committee \(SC\)

Source URL: <https://www.europol.europa.eu/publications-documents/migrant-smuggling-in-eu>