INTERNSHIP PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Name of the project: EU grants

Project allocation: Business Area of Corporate Services,
Commercial Law team

1. Background

Applications are invited for this INTERNSHIP PROJECT at the European Police Office (Europol).¹

Europol is located in The Hague, The Netherlands, and its main tasks are the following:

- a) to collect, store, process, analyse and exchange information and intelligence;
- b) to aid investigations in the Member States, in particular by forwarding all relevant information to the national units;
- c) to ask the competent authorities of the Member States concerned to initiate, conduct or coordinate investigations and to suggest the setting up of joint investigation teams in specific cases;
- d) to provide intelligence and analytical support to Member States in connection with major international events;
- e) to prepare threat assessments, strategic analyses and general situation reports relating to its objective, including organised crime threat assessments.

For more information please visit Europol's website www.europol.europa.eu.

2. Purpose of an internship project

The aims of the official internship scheme with Europol are:

- To provide interns with a unique and first hand experience of the workings of Europol in particular and of the European Union institutions in general. It aims to provide an understanding of the objectives and goals of the Europol processes and policies.
- To enable interns to acquire practical experience and knowledge of the day-to-day work of Europol departments and services.

¹ Europol has been established under the Council Decision (EC) No. 2009/371 of 6 April 2009.

Europol Public Information

- To provide the opportunity to work in a multi-cultural, multi-linguistic and multi-ethnic environment contributing to the development of mutual understanding, trust and tolerance.
- To promote European integration within the spirit of new governance and through active participation to create awareness of true European citizenship.
- To provide the opportunity to interns to put into practice knowledge acquired during their studies and training and in particular their specific areas of competence. To introduce these interns to the professional world and the constraints, duties and opportunities therein.

Europol, through its official internship scheme:

- Benefits from the input of enthusiastic interns, who can give a fresh point of view and up-to-date academic and educational knowledge, which will enhance the everyday work of Europol;
- Creates a pool of interns with first-hand experience of and training in Europol procedures, who will be better prepared to collaborate and co-operate with Europol in the future;
- Creates long-term "goodwill ambassadors" for European ideas and values both within the European Union and outside.

3. Internship project specification

Europol receives funding from the EU budget. All funds spent must be in accordance with the Europol Financial Regulation. A draft Europol Regulation foresees the possibility for Europol to give financial support, including by means of grants. Europol is interested in exploring and preparing for such activity which represents a new modus operandi for Europol.

For this project, the intern will work alongside the Commercial Law team (4 lawyers). In connection with this project, opportunity is also provided for the intern to assist desk officers on typical files to show the application of the rules of the financial regulation in practice.

The project will be lead and supervised by a Senior Specialist in the Commercial Law team.

The successful applicant will join the Internship Project for a period of 3 months (40 hours a week), which may be extended for another period of up to 3 months. The internship will take place at Europol premises in The Hague, The Netherlands.
