

Agreement
on Strategic Cooperation between the Federative Republic of Brazil and the European Police Office

The Federative Republic of Brazil

the European Police Office (hereafter referred to as "the Contracting Parties")

Aware of the urgent problems arising from international organised crime, especially terrorism, and other forms of serious crime,

Considering the mandate given by the Government of the Federative Republic of Brazil to the General Director of the Brazilian Federal Police to agree to the present Agreement between the Federative Republic of Brazil and Europol,

Considering that the Council of the European Union has on 06 May 2014 given Europol the authorisation to agree to the present Agreement between the Federative Republic of Brazil and Europol,

Respectful of Europol's obligations under the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union,

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1 Purpose

The purpose of this Agreement is to establish cooperative relations between Europol and the Federative Republic of Brazil in order to support the Member States of the European Union and the Federative Republic of Brazil in preventing and combating organised crime, terrorism and other forms of international crime in the areas of crime referred to in Article 3, in particular through the exchange of operational, strategic and technical information between Europol and the Federative Republic of Brazil. This agreement does not cover the exchange of personal data.

Article 2 Definitions

For the purpose of this agreement:

- a) "Europol Council Decision" shall mean the Council Decision of 6 April 2009 establishing the European Police Office (Europol), OJ L 121, 15.5.2009;
- b) "personal data" means any data relating to an identified or identifiable natural person: an identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identification number or to one or more factors specific to his physical, physiological, mental, economic, cultural or social identity;

Chapter I - Scope

Article 3 Areas of crime

1. The co-operation as established in this Agreement shall only relate to all areas of crime within Europol's mandate as listed in Annex I, including related criminal offences.
2. Related criminal offences shall be the criminal offences committed in order to procure the means of perpetrating the criminal acts referred to in paragraph 1, criminal offences committed in order to facilitate or carry out such acts, and criminal offences committed to ensure the impunity of such acts.
3. Where Europol's mandate as listed in Annex I is changed in any way, Europol may, from the date when the change to Europol's mandate enters into force, suggest the applicability of this Agreement in relation to the new mandate to the Federative Republic of Brazil in writing in accordance with Article 20.

Article 4 Areas of cooperation

The cooperation may, additional to the exchange of information, in accordance with the tasks of Europol as outlined in the Europol Council Decision, in particular include the exchange of specialist knowledge, general situation reports, results of strategic analysis, information on criminal investigation procedures, information on crime prevention methods, participation in training activities as well as providing advice and support in individual criminal investigations.

Article 5
Relation to other international instruments

This Agreement shall not prejudice or otherwise affect or impact upon the legal provisions with regard to the exchange of information foreseen by any Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty, any other cooperation agreement or arrangement, or working law enforcement relationship for the exchange of information between the Federative Republic of Brazil and any Member State of the European Union.

Chapter II – Mode of Cooperation

Article 6
National contact point

1. The Federative Republic of Brazil designates a national contact point to act as the central point of contact between Europol and other competent authorities of the Federative Republic of Brazil.
2. The exchange of information between Europol and the Federative Republic of Brazil as specified in this Agreement shall take place between Europol and the national contact point. This does not preclude however, direct exchanges of information between Europol and the competent authorities as defined in Article 7, if considered appropriate by both parties.
3. The Federative Republic of Brazil shall ensure the possibility for the national contact point to enable information exchange on a 24-hour basis. The national contact point shall ensure that information can be exchanged without delay with the competent authorities mentioned in Article 7.
4. The national contact point for the Federative Republic of Brazil is designated in Annex II.

Article 7
Competent authorities

1. Competent authorities are all public bodies existing in the Federative Republic of Brazil responsible under national law for preventing and combating criminal offences. They are listed in Annex II to this Agreement.
2. The transmission of information by Europol to the Federative Republic of Brazil and transmission within the Federative Republic of Brazil shall be restricted to the mentioned competent authorities.

Article 8
Consultations and Closer Cooperation

1. The Parties agree that to further the cooperation and enhance as well as monitor the development of the provisions of this Agreement, regular exchanges, as appropriate, are integral. Specifically:
 - a. High level meetings between Europol and the competent authorities of the Federative Republic of Brazil shall take place regularly to discuss issues relating to this Agreement and the co-operation in general.

- b. A representative of the national contact point and Europol shall consult each other regularly on policy issues and matters of common interest for the purpose of realising their objectives and coordinating their respective activities.
2. When appropriate, consultation shall be arranged at the required level between representatives of the competent authorities of the Federative Republic of Brazil and Europol, responsible for the areas of criminality to which this Agreement applies, to agree upon the most effective way in which to organise their particular activities.

Article 9 Police Liaison Officer

1. The Parties agree to enhance the cooperation as laid down in this Agreement through the secondment of police liaison officer(s) of the Federative Republic of Brazil. Europol may at its own discretion equally consider the secondment of liaison officer(s) to the Federative Republic of Brazil.
2. The liaison officers' tasks, rights and obligations shall be governed by a Memorandum of Understanding.
3. The seconding authority shall ensure that its liaison officers have speedy and, where technically feasible, direct access to the national databases necessary for them to fulfil their respective tasks.
4. Europol will as far as possible assist the Federative Republic of Brazil in respect of concluding an agreement with the Kingdom of the Netherlands concerning the privileges and immunities enjoyed by the Federative Republic of Brazil's seconded liaison officers. Within the territory of the Federative Republic of Brazil a Europol liaison officer will enjoy the same privileges and immunities as those accorded by the Federative Republic of Brazil to members, having comparable rank, of staff of diplomatic missions established in the Federative Republic of Brazil.

Chapter III - Information exchange

Article 10 General Provisions

1. Exchange of information between the Parties shall only take place for the purpose of and in accordance with the other provisions of this Agreement.
2. Parties shall only supply information to each other which was collected, stored and transmitted in accordance with their respective legal framework and has not been manifestly obtained in violation of human rights. In this context Europol will in particular be bound by article 20(4) of the "Council Decision adopting the implementing rules governing Europol's relations with partners, including the exchange of personal data and classified information."
3. Requests for public access by individuals to information transmitted on the basis of the present Agreement shall be submitted to the transmitting Party for their advice within the legally required timeframe. The concerned information shall not be disclosed without the prior consent of the transmitting Party.

Article 11
Use of the information

1. Information if transmitted with a purpose may be used only for the purpose for which it was transmitted and any restriction on its use, deletion or destruction, including possible access restrictions in general or specific terms must be respected by the Parties.
2. Use of information for a different purpose than the purpose for which the information was transmitted must be authorised by the transmitting Party.

Article 12
Onward transmission of the information received

1. Onward transmission of the information received by the Federative Republic of Brazil shall be restricted to the competent authorities of the Federative Republic of Brazil mentioned in Article 7 and shall take place under the same conditions as those applying to the original transmission. Any other onward transmission, including to third States and international organisations, must be consented to by Europol.
2. Onward transmission of the information received by Europol shall be restricted to the authorities responsible in the Member States of European Union for preventing and combating criminal offences and shall take place under the same conditions as those applying to the original transmission. Any other onward transmission, including to third States or international organisations must be consented to by the Federative Republic of Brazil.

Article 13
Assessment of the source and of the information

1. When information is supplied by the Parties on the basis of this Agreement, the source of the information shall be indicated as far as possible on the basis of the following criteria:
 - a. Where there is no doubt of the authenticity, trustworthiness and competence of the source, or if the information is supplied by a source who, in the past, has proved to be reliable in all instances;
 - b. Source from whom information received has in most instances proved to be reliable;
 - c. Source from whom information received has in most instances proved to be unreliable;
 - X. The reliability of the source cannot be assessed.
2. When information is supplied by the Parties on the basis of this Agreement, the reliability of the information shall be indicated as far as possible on the basis of the following criteria:
 1. Information whose accuracy is not in doubt;
 2. Information known personally to the source but not known personally to the official passing it on;
 3. Information not known personally to the source but corroborated by other information already recorded;
 4. Information which is not known personally to the source and cannot be corroborated.
3. If either of the Parties - on the basis of information already in its possession - comes to the conclusion that the assessment of information supplied by the other

Party needs correction, it shall inform the other Party and attempt to agree on an amendment to the assessment. Neither of the Parties shall change the assessment of information received without such agreement.

4. If a Party receives information without an assessment, it shall attempt as far as possible and in agreement with the transmitting Party to assess the reliability of the source or the information on the basis of information already in its possession.
5. The Parties may agree in general terms on the assessment of specified types of information and specified sources, which shall be laid down in a Memorandum of Understanding between the Federative Republic of Brazil and Europol. If information has been supplied on the basis of such general agreements, this shall be noted with the information.
6. If no reliable assessment can be made, or no agreement in general terms exists, the information shall be evaluated as at paragraph 1 (X) and paragraph 2 (4) above.

CHAPTER IV – Confidentiality of information

Article 14 Principles of security and confidentiality

Each Party shall:

1. protect and safeguard information subject to this Agreement and Memorandum of Understanding referred to in Article 15, with the exception of information which is expressly marked or is clearly recognisable as being public information, by various measures including the obligation of discretion and confidentiality, limiting access to authorised personnel and general technical and procedural measures.
2. ensure that it has a security organisation, framework and measures in place.
3. The Parties mutually accept and apply the basic principles and minimum standards implemented in their respective security systems and procedures to ensure that at least an equivalent level of protection is granted for information subject to this Agreement.
4. ensure that the premises where information subject to this Agreement is kept have an appropriate level of physical security in accordance with the respective legal framework of the Party.
5. ensure that access to and possession of information is restricted to those persons who by reason of their duties or obligations need to be acquainted with such information or need to handle it.
6. ensure that all persons who, in the conduct of their official duties require access or whose duties or functions may afford access to information shall be subject to a basic security screening in accordance with the respective legal framework of the Party.
7. be responsible for the choice of the appropriate protective marking for information supplied to the other Party.
8. ensure that information subject to this Agreement keeps the protective markings given to it by the originating Party.

9. not use or permit the use of information subject to this Agreement except for the purposes and within any limitations stated by or on behalf of the originator, without the written consent of the originator.
10. not disclose or permit the disclosure of information subject to this Agreement to third parties, without the prior written consent of the originator.

Article 15

Memorandum of Understanding on Confidentiality and Information Assurance

The protection of the information exchanged between the Parties, shall be regulated in a Memorandum of Understanding on Confidentiality and Information assurance agreed between the Parties implementing the principles outlined in this Chapter. Such Memorandum shall include in particular provisions on the Parties' security organisation, education and training, standards of security screening, table of equivalence, handling of classified information and values of information assurance. Exchange of classified information is conditional upon the conclusion of the Memorandum of Understanding on confidentiality and Information Assurance.

CHAPTER V - Disputes and Liability

Article 16

Liability

1. The Parties shall be liable, in accordance with their respective legal frameworks, for any damage caused to an individual as a result of legal or factual errors in information exchanged. In order to avoid its liability under their respective legal frameworks vis-à-vis an injured party, neither Party may plead that the other had transmitted inaccurate information.
2. If these legal or factual errors occurred as a result of information erroneously communicated or of failure on the part of the other Party to comply with their obligations, they shall be bound to repay, on request, any amounts paid as compensation under paragraph 1 above, unless the information was used by the other Party in breach of this Agreement.
3. The Parties shall not require each other to pay for punitive or non-compensatory damages under paragraphs 1 and 2 above.

Article 17

Settlement of Disputes

1. All disputes which may emerge in connection with the interpretation or application of the present Agreement shall be settled by means of consultations and negotiations between representatives of the Parties.
2. In the event of serious failings of either Party to comply with the provisions of this Agreement, or a Party is of the view that such a failing may occur in the near future, either Party may suspend the application of this Agreement temporarily, pending the application of paragraph 1. Obligations inherent upon the Parties under the agreement will nonetheless remain in force.

Chapter VI - Final Provisions

Article 18 Secure communication line

1. The establishment, implementation and operation of a secure communication line for the purpose of exchange of information between Europol and the Federative Republic of Brazil shall be regulated in a Memorandum of Understanding agreed between the Parties.
2. Without prejudice to Article 16 a Party shall be liable for damage caused to the other Party as a result of wrongful actions relating to the establishment, the implementation or the operation of the secure communication line.
3. Any dispute between the Parties concerning the interpretation or application of provisions relating to the establishment, implementation and operation of a secure communication line shall be settled in accordance with Article 17.

Article 19 Expenses

The Parties shall bear their own expenses which arise in the course of implementation of the present Agreement, unless otherwise stipulated in this Agreement.

Article 20 Amendments and Supplements

1. This Agreement may be amended in writing, at any time by mutual consent between the Parties. Any amendments must receive the approval by the Council of the European Union.
2. The Annexes to this Agreement, as well as the provisions of Article 3(3) may be amended through an Exchange of Notes between the Parties.
3. Without prejudice to paragraph 1, amendments to the Annexes of this Agreement may be agreed upon without the approval of the Council of the European Union and the Brazilian National Congress.
4. The Parties shall enter into consultations with respect to the amendment of this Agreement or its Annexes at the request of either of them.

Article 21 Entry into force and validity

This Agreement shall enter into force thirty (30) days after the receipt by Europol, through diplomatic channels, of the written notification by which the Federative Republic of Brazil inform that it necessary internal procedures have been fulfilled for the entry into force of the present Agreement.

Article 22 Termination of the Agreement

1. This Agreement may be terminated in writing by either of the Parties with three months' notice.

2. In case of termination, the Parties shall reach agreement on the continued use and storage of the information that has already been communicated between them. If no agreement is reached, either of the two Parties is entitled to require that the information which it has communicated be destroyed or returned to the transmitting Party.
3. Without prejudice to paragraph 1, the legal effects of this Agreement remain in force.
