More than 90% of migrants are facilitated to the EU, mostly by criminal networks.

- Over 1 million migrants illegally entered the EU in 2015.
- Over 3770 migrants lost their lives in the Mediterranean Sea.
Document fraud
Criminal assets
(estimation)
Increased risk of exploitation
EUR 3 to 6 billion
SIENA contributions from EU Member States and partners
Poly criminality
Analysis of social media data (IRU - Internet Referral Unit)
6,521 30%
SIENA contributions from EU Member States and partners increase compared to 2014
40,000 suspects identified
140,000 new communication entities listed
> 100 suspicious vessels identified
Almost
2015 Europol Data & Activities
6,521
1,551
6,521
30%
140,000
> 100
1,551
Current situation
EUR 3 to 6 billion
Criminal assets (estimation)
Increased risk of exploitation
Document fraud
Poly criminality
Deployments on-the-spot
- Europol Mobile Investigation Teams (EMIST)
- Europol Mobile Analysis Teams (EMAST)

Information hub for migrant smuggling
- Centralised Approach
- Specialist support – intelligence led – investigations, analysis, forensics
- Platform for EU Member States & partners
  - linking and combining various tools

Operational support, coordination and expertise

Strategic support
- to EU Member States and partners
- Support to the European Union Regional Taskforce (EU RTF) & Hotspots

Support to the European Union Regional Taskforce (EU RTF) & Hotspots

* A Focal Point is a specialised team within Europol which focuses on a certain organised crime phenomenon. The Focal Points provide assistance and expertise to international investigations led by EU Member States.